Oil Pulling 250 ml / 8.4 oz

Oil-based mouth wash. Ancient ayurvedic formula with 8 essential oils.

Helps control bad breath and keep the mouth free of bacteria and toxins. Regulates the pH of the oral flora and fosters gum health.

Directions: In the morning, before eating and after brushing your teeth, rinse your mouth thoroughly with a tablespoon of the formula so the oil reaches all the corners of your mouth and the toxins adhere to it. For the desired effect, rinse at least 4 minutes and for deep cleaning at least 20. Spit onto a piece of toilet paper and dispose of it in the trash can. Rinse with water. If you feel like swallowing the oil and the time isn't up, spit and repeat.

Ingredients: Sesamae oleum (sesame oil), essential oils: Amomum oleum (cardamum), Abies oleum (fir), Nutmeg oleum (nutmeg), Thyma oleum (thyme), licorice root tincture, and the manufacturer's own mix of 4 additional oils.

Epsom salts 500 g / 17.63 oz

2 scents: lavender and rosemary

Epsom salts have anti-inflammatory properties that can relax muscles and reduce pain, bruising and cramps. They eliminate toxins and heavy metals from the body. They can also restore the skin after a bug bite or a splinter and relieve sore feet after a long day. Perfect for treating yourself to a spa day at home.

Directions: Submerge the area you want to treat, either in the bath (use two cups) or in a small tub for your arms and feet (use ¼ cup), for 15 minutes and up to three times a week. You can also make compresses, just dissolve two teaspoons of Epsom salt in a glass of hot water and soak a towel. Apply over the affected area.

Ingredients: magnesium sulfate crystals (magnesium sulfate heptahydrate), Cocos oleum (coconut oil), lavender fragrance, lavender or rosemary leaves, and citrus seed conservatives.
